Cultural Competence

The LLCP believes and promotes that cultural competency is demonstrated throughout our attitudes, actions, and policies reflecting that we together are part of a congruent agency made up of professionals who work as a team and treat all persons equally, with dignity and respect regardless of culture, age, gender, sexual orientation, spiritual beliefs, socioeconomic status, language, disability, or level of education. As an agency we seek to educate ourselves, each other, and our community about our differences, celebrating, embracing, and using them to better work together and integrate fully as part of our community.

As an effort to improve the cultural competence of the LLCP, the agency is committed to cultural competency in that LLCP will seek and provide opportunities to learn, teach, understand, and celebrate the differences of all people.

Ask, Listen, and Support!

The LLCP is committed to ensuring that we are a person centered organization designed to assist people to live in the community and do the things they want to do.

Commitment!

LLCP is committed to ensuring that as an organization we assist those served to live in the community and do the things they want to do. We at the LLCP are here to provide services to those who choose us to assist them in achieving their dreams. We do this by asking using their preferred method of communication, listening and ensuring understanding, and supporting those we serve to obtain their needs and wants, achieve their visions for their future!

Community!

Those served by the LLCP reside in the community of their choosing. The LLCP supports those served to become active members of their community doing so by assisting with and fostering opportunities for community interaction, integration, volunteerism, and socialization in community in which they live.
